

Danish Society of Nephrology Copenhagen, May 5 – 6, 2017

Store Auditorium, Herlev Hospital, Herlev Ringvej 75, 2730 Herlev

Friday, May 5, 2017

10.00 - 11.30	Educational session Welcome
10.05 - 11.30	Renal pathology – news, clinical relevance and cases to prove it Professor, dr. med. Niels Marcussen, Afdeling for Klinisk Patologi, Odense Universitetshospital. Ledende overlæge, dr. med. Hans Dieperink, Nyremedicinsk afdeling Y, Odense Universitetshospital.
11.30 - 12.30	Lunch and exhibition
12.30 – 14.25	The challenges of the diabetes patient – what 's new regarding renal complications? Chairmen: Rikke Borg and Henrik Birn
12.35 - 13.10	Cardiovascular and renal outcomes in diabetes treatment trials - Finally some good (kidney) news? Professor Peter Rossing, Steno Diabetes Center, Gentofte
13.10 - 13.45	Personalized Medicine to halt Diabetic Nephropathy; how to match trial with practice Professor Dick de Zeeuw, University of Groningen, the Netherlands
13.45 – 13.55	Discussion among the audience and the speakers
13.55 – 14.40	Coffee and exhibition
14.40 – 16.45	More on the complications of the diabetes patient
14.40 – 15.10	Diabetic Neuropathy – update on research and current treatment Professor Henning Andersen, The International Diabetic Neuropathy Consortium (IDNC) and Dept. Of neurology, Aarhus University, Aarhus
15.10 – 15.35	Healing the Diabetic Foot – evidence for treatment regimens Orthopedic surgeon specialist, Klaus Kirketerp-Møller, Copenhagen Wound Healing Center, Bispebjerg University Hospital and Steno Diabetes Center, Gentofte
15.35 – 15.45	Treatment of diabetic foot ulcers with blood patches – promise for the future? Professor Lise Tarnow, Department of Clinical Research, Nordsjællands Hospital and Aarhus University
15.45 - 16.00	Discussion + stretching of legs
16.00 – 16:25	Update on Diabetic Retinopathy- metabolism in the retina during hyperglycemia Professor, ophthalmologist Michael Larsen, Rigshospitalets Øjenklinik, Glostrup
16.25 – 16.45	The Steno Way - What's the role of the nephrologist in the new national Diabetes Centers? Centerdirektør, klinisk professor Allan Flyvbjerg, Steno Diabetes Center Copenhagen (SDCC) + debate
16:45 - 17:30	General Assembly (In Danish)
17.30 – 18.00	General Assembly Young Nephrologists (In Danish)

Evening program (separate registration and payment for the evening program at Scandic Copenhagen)

19.00	Aperitif
19.30	Dinner

Saturday, May 6, 2017

09.00 - 10.00	Claus Brun lecture: Ny-Ren: What can we do for kidneys Professor Bente Jespersen, Department of Nephrology, Århus University Hospital, Denmark
---------------	--